

Financial Literacy Training

Support Your Clients in growing their Financial Literacy Skills!

Learn to provide money management education for people living on low-incomes.

Momentum's 2-day introductory Financial Literacy Training is a holistic, strength-based approach to growing a sustainable livelihood and has been developed based on 18 years working with over 25,000 participants.

The two-day, 12 hour in-person course provides:

- An introduction to the Sustainable Livelihoods Approach - an asset building approach to poverty reduction
- A strong understanding of the five core financial literacy topics: Assets, Banking, Budgeting, Consumerism and Credit
- Training in facilitation skills, adult learning principles and best practices in working with people with barriers to financial inclusion
- The license to facilitate and distribute the Momentum Financial Literacy Curriculum

Upcoming Courses

Courses take place at Momentum which is located at 16, 2936 Radcliffe Dr. SE, Calgary, AB
